Michael S. Crumb

President & CEO

Mike has strong roots in Spokane; born, raised and educated in the Inland Northwest. He is a Gonzaga Prep graduate and has both a BA and an MBA from Eastern Washington University. After receiving his Master's degree, Mike gained first-hand knowledge about running a successful court reporting business by working in the public relations department for a regional court reporting firm. With his extensive business background and deep understanding of what it takes to be a success, Mike has started his own firm, Crumb Court Reporting, to do things his way - the right way.

Carrie Kraft

Office Manager

Carrie comes to Crumb Court Reporting from Storey & Miller. Prior to making that transition, Carrie managed both a residential facility and a day facility for individuals with special needs and disabilities. She has a BA from Pacific Lutheran University and a Master's from the University of Washington.

Jody Pope

CSR, RPR

Raised in Spokane, Jody started her career in the legal profession at Paine Hamblen as a legal assistant. Mentored by Joan Snover, Jody branched into court reporting and has freelanced for several fine firms: Snover Court Reporting and Storey & Miller.

Amy Brown

RMR, CRR

Amy has been a reporter for 15 years in Spokane. Rough drafts and expedites are her specialty, along with providing wireless realtime on an iPad that she provides or on your own device.

Dorothy Stiles

RMR, CRR

Dorothy is a returning Spokane resident. She has extensive court experience, having worked in both superior and federal court jurisdictions. Her freelance experience has been with Seattle Deposition Reporters and Spokane Reporting. As a strong proponent of realtime, she has been providing this service to counsel for 20 years.

Vladimir Korneychuk

CDVS ~ Lead Videographer

Vladimir is a graduate of Spokane Community College and the Art Institute of Seattle. Along with production of legal videos, he works for a local news broadcaster covering live regional sports.
